

Get ready to ring in the new year with fun demonstrations that go thump, whip, bang, pop, and crack.

The Physics Demo Facility at UMD is dedicated to excellence in physics education and outreach to the public. Physics is Phun programs are geared toward a high school audience and aim to both educate and entertain!

Thursday, December 10th @ 7:00 PM

Friday, December 11th @ 7:00 PM

Physics Department Lecture Halls (1410 & 1412)
