

The Physics Demo Facility at UMD is dedicated to excellence in physics education and outreach to the public. Geared for elementary-middle school students and their parents, Physics Discovery Days are highly-interactive programs offering fun and engaging hands-on experiments and projects.

Saturday, June 4th

10:00am-Noon

Demo Show in Physics Lecture Halls (1410 & 1412),
followed by activities outdoors (weather permitting)
John S. Toll Physics Building (082), University of Maryland

Space is Limited... Register Now!

For registration and more information, please visit:

umdphysics.umd.edu/outreach